“Flesh of my Flesh!” Mary’s Role in our Salvation

“Who didst vouchsafe to choose the Chaste Chamber of the Blessed Virgin Mary to dwell therein”

Through the Incarnation, when Jesus Christ was conceived in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the divine nature of the Son of God was united, and forever remains united, with the human nature of the Son of Man such that the one divine Person Jesus Christ, is indeed both "truly God and truly man".

The *Unum Necessarium (the one thing necessary)

Mary is the one person ever to contribute, *to truly give, the one thing to God that was not already His, even as He first imparted it to her.

It was something necessary to the final and perfect fulfillment of the will of God. In fact, it was the one thing that God created but did not possess. Apart from it, the suffering, crucifixion, death, and resurrection — absolutely necessary to the fulfillment of God’s will for the salvation of the world, for the redemption of souls from bondage to sin and death — was impossible: her very flesh! Mary assented to the will of God: “Fiat mihi secundum verbum tuum — let it be done to me according to thy word” (St. Luke 1:38) — “Et Verbum caro factum est”, “And the Word became flesh!” (St. John 1:14)

Jesus Christ took the substance of His sacred humanity from Mary. It was in this Sacred Humanity that Christ preached, healed, raised from the dead, gave sight to the blind. It is also in His Sacred Humanity that Christ suffered, was crucified, and died for our sins and through which He purchased our salvation. Had Mary not consented to the will of God; had she refused to be the Mother of God's Son (Who Himself is One with the Father), the one thing absolutely necessary to our salvation — the flesh and the humanity which Jesus Christ assumed, and through which alone salvation came into the world in the Person of Jesus Christ — could never have been possible.

“God is a Spirit” (St. John 4.24), and spirit is not possessed of flesh together with all the limitations inherent within it. God is infinite. Flesh is not. God is everywhere present, flesh is not. God is perfect felicity, which is to say, God in Himself has ever been, is, and ever will be, perfectly happy, unassailed by suffering, and pain cannot touch upon Him — but flesh is not! For this reason,

Saint Paul tells us that Jesus Christ, “Who being in the form of God ... emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men.”

(Philippians 2.5-7). How? Through the Incarnation. Through whom? Through Mary who contributed her flesh (giving Christ, Who had emptied Himself of “the form of God,” to assume “the form of a servant:” in fact, the "Suffering Servant" of Isaiah 53 through Whom mankind is redeemed. Only in the humanity that Christ took from Mary alone, could He possibly suffer ... even die!

Theologians speak of this in terms of the “Hypostatic Union,” or the union of God and Man in the Person of Jesus Christ. Christ is both! But it was in His humanity that He suffered and redeemed the world — the humanity, the flesh, given Him by Mary alone. In her assent to the will of God, in her “Fiat mihi secundum verbum tuum,” “Be it done to me according to your word” (St. Luke 1.38), she, the lowly “handmaid of the Lord,” gave to God the one thing that Spirit does not, cannot, possess: flesh. Her flesh — which the Son of God assumed, becoming through her assent, “True God and True Man.”

This is beautifully expressed in *The Little Office* during this hour of Prime through the hymn, “Memento, rerum Conditor”:

Memento, rerum Conditor

Remember, O Creator Lord!

Nostri quod olim corporis

That in the Virgin's sacred womb

Sacrata ab alvo Virginis

Thou wast conceiv'd, and of her flesh

Nascendo formam sumpseris

Didst our mortality assume

Mary's role, then, in our salvation is not, as some contend, marginal; it is central and she can no more be understood apart from Christ than Jesus in His Sacred Humanity can be understood apart from Mary. His flesh is her flesh, and commingled with the flesh of no other! His humanity is, substantively, Mary's humanity... from whence it came and from which it is inseparable.

When Jesus gave Mary to us on the Cross, and us to Mary, He never ceased calling us to Him through her. Jesus Christ speaks to each of us in this way:

“... I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him: and I will not let him go, till I bring him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that bore me.”

(Song of Songs 3.4)

It is to a loving acquaintance with Mary, His Mother, that Christ first calls you; to His Mother's House, which is Holy Mother Church, and into that chamber of the love that bore Him, that you, too, may know the love of Mary ...and be no more an orphan in this world, nor a stranger in the world to come.
